

MUCH DISTRESS IN LA GLORIA COLONY

United States Urged to Help the Destitute.

COLONISTS STILL ARRIVE

The Secretary of Agriculture Has Declared that the Colonists' Titles Are of Doubtful Value, and Many Have Abandoned Their Claims.

HAVANA, March 6.—Sixty proposed colonies, bound for La Gloria, have arrived at Nuevitas on board the Yarmouth, from Brunswick, Ga. According to the latest advices from La Gloria, much distress exists there, especially among those who have lost all and who must depend upon the work they can obtain in the districts of Puerto Prin-cipe and Nuevitas.

Already requests have been made to the United States government to furnish transportation for these destitute people. It is said that only 70 out of the original 1,000 still remain at La Gloria. These figures do not include the Yarmouth's passengers.

General Rivera, secretary of agriculture, says that the titles of the colonists are of doubtful value and that many of the settlers, after investigating the claims, have abandoned them altogether.

The colonists express their gratitude to the department for furnishing them with the means to work as possible.
In all probability an investigation into the management of the colony will be instituted.

MEN OF MARK.

An agent of Collis P. Huntington is in London with a view to buying some of the most prized pictures in the exhibit at the new gallery.

George Gould, who has the fox hunting fever very badly, has just purchased outright one of the finest and largest packs of foxhounds in England.

Governor Longino, the chief executive of Mississippi, is not 44 years old. He is a self made man and worked nights to pay his way at Mississippi college, Clinton, Miss.

Luccheni, the murderer of the Empress Elizabeth of Austria, having spent a year in solitary confinement, is now, according to the Swiss law, treated like all other prisoners.

D. C. Jenkins, for nearly 25 years the editor in chief of the Galveston News, has retired from active work on account of advancing age and has gone to live in southern California.

Governor Nash of Ohio is an authority on the history of that state, which he has made a life-long study. His library of works on this subject is probably the largest and most valuable extent.

King Humbert of Italy has sent to Baron Saverio Fava, the Italian ambassador at Washington, the grand cordon of the Order of the Corona d'Italia as an evidence of his appreciation and esteem.

Lord Roberts is one of the rare exceptions among British officers in not complying with the army regulation, which requires the shaving of the chin. He is credited with saying, "I do not fight with my chin."

Speaker Henderson has adopted a new form for calling the house to order. The old ones were, "Gentlemen will please refrain from conversation," and "Gentlemen will please take their seats." Mr.
Henderson says, "In order that the public business may go forward," etc.

One of the eccentricities of Sir John Shook, who was recently raised to the peerage, is his fondness for live insects as pets. He once made a favorite of a wasp he caught in Spain, and the insect grew so fond of him that it would fly into his hand to be stroked.

Abraham E. Liner of Utica, said to be the oldest inhabitant of New York state, has just celebrated his one hundred and thirtieth birthday. He was born in Warren, Herkimer county, and lost his eyesight 14 years ago, but otherwise is well preserved. He has used tobacco since he was 10 years old.

William French Merriam of Minneapolis was a schoolmate of Admiral Dewey at a little log schoolhouse in Vermont.
Later he served in the war of the rebellion, was wounded in a skirmish at Somerville, Va., left for dead before a line of charging Confederates and rescued at great risk by a private in the Thirty-third Ohio—William McKinley.

George L. Watson, the Scotch designer of yachts, will celebrate his fiftieth anniversary as a designer this year. After serving his apprenticeship he went into business for himself and, as is well known, has been one of the most successful of British designers. His best known boats are the Thistle, the three Valky-ries, the Britannia, the Bona, the Rainbow and the Gleniffer.

Woman's Way.

Her love proved false unto his vows,
And, while her heart was sore,
The maiden vowed that she would dress In simple sackcloth evermore.

But she married a richlander soon;
Her wounded heart did quickly heal,
The sackcloth that she's wearing now Is a very handsome sack of wool.

ARRESTED FOR SWINDLING.

Agent in Tombs For Crooked Deals in the South.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Joseph C. Metcalfe, a well known real estate man in Brooklyn, is under arrest here. He is supposed to know the details of the recent swindling operation alleged to have been worked upon William D.
Cronkley of Harriman, Tenn., by Mrs.
E. E. Knights of Sparkill, N. Y., who was known for many years as Ellen Peck, the "Queen of Confidence Women."

Mrs. Knights is also a prisoner in the tomb.

Mr. Cronkley is the owner of a plantation of 1,000 acres in Warren county, N. C., which is made especially valuable by a productive magnesite spring.
About a year ago, according to which Mr. Cronkley's story, he wished to dispose of the property, and advertised considerably.

Mrs. Knights visited him at Washington and at his plantation in company with Mr. Metcalfe. The woman so impressed him that he loaned her $7,000.
He also turned over the plantation in exchange for mortgages on other property.

Today, however, Mrs. Knights was found at the tomb and induced to re-convey the plantation to the impoverished owner.

Mr. Metcalfe claims that in his dealings with Mrs. Knights he acted merely as an agent and his transactions were perfectly legitimate and that he was himself deceived by the woman and her representations.

Steam For Train Robbers.

Every locomotive that is built in the west nowadays has the new antilift attachment.

On all the new engines of the D. and R. G. railway are iron pipes extending along the roof of the cab and connecting with the boiler. Through these pipes, without making a perceptible motion, either the engineer or fireman can send under 250 pounds pressure a jet of steam and boiling water that would effectually cook anything living that happened to be on the tender or the front end of the baggage car. The diameter of the pipe is 1½ inches, and a single second would drop any man who tried to stand before it in action.

The steam leaves the pipe at a temperature of about 750 degrees, hot enough to have the toughest of outlaws cooked by the time the train could be brought to a standstill. It will quell the ardor of these gentlemen who make a specialty of holding up engineers from the tender.

Tramps are fighting shy of this railroad.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

The Wretch.

"What is it, George?" tenderly asked Mrs. Ferguson. "Is it the toothache again?"

"Yes," groaned Mr. Ferguson. "It aches as if it would take the whole top of my head off."

"Shall I sing for you, dear?"

"I wish you would, Laura."

And while she thumped the piano and sang the old songs of their courtship days he lay on the lounge and took advantage of the opportunity to swear in a subdued voice, unheard.—

His Reason.

"No," said Tired Treadwell, "I can't say but what I'd rather have it 20 below zero with no snow than 25 above with a foot of the beautiful all over the landscape."

"Why?" asked Sauntering Sam.
"You ought to know. The chances that they'll ask you to do something for the hand out you get is reduced about 99 per cent when the ground's bare."—Chicago Post.

In Court.

Lawyer—So, witness, your name is Samson?

Witness—Yes, sir.

"Now, remember, you are on your oath. Do you seriously think you could break your namesake's record?"

"I don't know, sir, but I'd like to try when you have finished with your jaw-bone."—Brooklyn Life.

No Hearsay Evidence.

"Yes," the witness declared, "I could give further evidence against the prisoner, but as Kipling says, 'That's another.'"

"Never mind what Kipling says," interrupted the magistrate. "The prisoner can testify for himself when his turn comes."—Philadelphia Press.

Many Were Vaccinated.

SAVANNAH, March 6.—Health Officer Brunner estimates that during the past two months over 20,000 people have been vaccinated in Savannah. He and the city physicians have vaccinated no less than 15,000 in that time and he is satisfied the left arms of fully 50,000 patients have been punctured by their physicians. The reports from the surrounding country as to the prevalence of smallpox are not very encouraging, and some cases have been brought to Savannah. Every case that has been found here has been traced directly to some other city. There are now seven cases of smallpox at the pesthouse that are directly traceable to other cities.

TREAT YOUR WIVES

How many men spend from 10 to 25 cents a day for social drinks or to treat a friend, yet never think to spend 5 cents every other day to treat their wives at home to all the pure water they can drink, and for household purposes, without having to pump or draw it out of a 60-foot bored well. Men, think of this. Add to the comfort and health of your home by having city water put in.
The cost is small—only about 2½ cents a day.

AN UNFORTUNATE FAMILY.

Alabama People Afflicted With Many Severe Trials.

COLUMBUS, Ga., March 6.—A remarkable case of misfortune, continued and persistent, is afforded in the sad and unusual experience of the Crapps family, in Phenix City.

A year ago P. Y. M. Crapps and family moved to Phenix City from Salem.
About five months ago a malignant form of typhoid fever developed in the family. The wife died and the condition of the children continued so desperate that Mr. Crapps moved his residence to another part of the city.

Strange to say, the condition of his children grew worse, and others were seized with the dread disease. One after the other, three of his children died.
The family has since moved about repeatedly, thinking that the sickness was due to the peculiar conditions of some part of the town, but the disease has followed them steadily from one street to another.

The last death was that of a young man nearly grown, who was buried a few days ago. Two more of the children are sick and may not recover.

There is general sympathy for the afflicted family, and the good people of Phenix City are raising funds and assisting them in their trouble.

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12.

Though only 15 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Here now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and constant that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are undermined by the health breaks down. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing in the heat, and coming and going at the back of a superintendent or fireman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, backache and headache. The privilege of women workers is often so not really small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skilful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.
